SALINAS HIGH SCHOOL

Salinas, California

May Anne -
It's been fun
knowing you these past few years. Best of luck in everything you do. Jim May

Here's to Salinas High. Here's to all that goes to make up a school: students and teachers, history and traditions, memories and hopes. Yes, all these and many more intangibles make Salinas High School.

May our accomplishments perpetuate the name of Salinas High. The achievements of former students will lead us on to even more worthy actions, and our deeds will bring many more awards to our school. May we always reflect its praise.

Wherever we may roam, we will keep Salinas High forever in our hearts. The years we spend here may seem long and sometimes even useless, but they are precious and few. These short years seal our fates; the clock does not turn back. Here, we must learn to live.

May Ann:
It's been fun
getting to know you
this year.
We almost got to go to Yosemite huh?!
Well, better luck
next time!
Stay sweet,
Lexie

Mary Anne

Homemaking was fun
and I enjoyed having you in my class! I sometimes wonder how we got through all our little sewing projects! Hope to see you at Hartnell and good luck after that Best of luck always. Hope to see you in ten years.
Love
Becki

Mary Anne -
I feel terrible that you and I live only a block apart and we haven't gotten better acquainted. I see your smile going down West Street to Lucia's graduation, and Good luck to Sincerely,

1963

Realizing the dream of becoming mighty seniors, we pause for a moment to recall three wonderful years at Salinas High. We can still remember our first year at SHS as stumbling sophomores. Among our first recollections are the welcome assembly, the Get-Acquainted Dance, and the excitement of rallies and games. Activities during our sophomore year included selecting and purchasing class rings, and our successful sock-hop, the Zombie Jamboree.

Then, as juniors, we had reached the halfway mark. We began the year right by winning the A.F.S. magazine drive. We shall long remember a most successful Junior-Senior Prom, Carousel, proudly presented by our junior class. Lastly, our class eagerly anticipates student body leadership.

The years passed quickly, and before we knew it, our dream was realized — we were mighty seniors of 1963. There is so much to remember . . . the senior play, the prom, ditch day, and our last dance, the senior ball. Will we ever forget the excitement of graduation pictures, announcements, and scholarship awards?

As our final year at Salinas High sweeps by us, we gaze longingly over the many marvelous memories of our class. After years of preparation, the special night is finally at hand — the night when we march together for the last time as the class of 1963. Ahead of us lies the road of life and a prayerful wish for success and happiness.

Class of 1964

Mike Conway assisted by Mary Barden, Jill Waller, and Darlene McGuffin, led our class through a profitable and productive junior year. All of us worked like demons to make the prom the best in the history of Salinas High. Money from the concession booths fattened our bank book and made the prom possible. We thoroughly enjoyed the assembly we earned by winning the A.F.S. magazine drive. Looking back, we find that our junior year was highly successful, but we intend to make our senior year surpass all others.

Class of 1965

The school year began as a frightening experience for us sophomores. Soon we adjusted to the life of high school students and settled down to a year of hard work. When we became acquainted with the members of our class, we held our elections. Then came the choosing, purchasing and waiting for our class rings. We can say that our sophomore year was wonderful, but the next two years will be even more wonderful for the class of 1965.

Activities

Noon rallies at S.H.S. bring the students together. The Rooters' Club officers worked hard to make our rallies interesting, and through their efforts we succeeded in winning two trophies this year. The most important trophy came as a result of our spirited support at the North High-Salinas High game. We won our other rooters' trophy from all the schools in the CCA.

"Our fighting Pom-Pom girls bold"

Butch Hazelaar and John Montes try their hand at cheerleading while the Varsity Pom-Pom Girls and Cheerleaders take on the role of football players

Yolanda Castillo hides her head in shame as Butch Hasenauer and Richard Curtis display their talents as Block "5" Cheerleaders

These loyal rooters turned out to see the Block "5" Cheerleaders perform at one of our best rallies of the year

Knight around the inner court during one of our J.V. Rallies.

Cliff Kurz accepts the cake for the J.V. team while Ron Pina makes a face at the El Gab cameraman.

Well, Gail,
are we going to do a cheer or not?

Salinas High rooters await the break-through of the mighty Cowboys.

Our Cheerleaders and Pom-Pon Girls display their never-ending pep and vitality.

Everybody supported our first J.V. rally. This rally was the first ever in the history of S. H. S.

BASKETBALL

Coach Messner guided this year's varsity through a glorious season. The Cowboys won the all-important Salinas-North High game and also beat the fast-moving Watsonville team. At this writing, the Cowboys are on top of the league and have a good chance of winning the CCAL Championship.
